14 If you are in any doubt as to how your regular withdrawal will be taxed you should consult your Financial Adviser. Tax may be payable where you make a regular withdrawal from your bond. Any tax liability may vary depending on your individual circumstances including, but not limited to, your tax residency status and the size of any regular withdrawal you make from your bond. Prudential International cannot, under any circumstances, undertake tax calculations for bondholders or their advisers. If you have selected a PruFund Protected Fund and wish to take regular withdrawals, the amount guaranteed will be adjusted proportionately for any withdrawals you have made.

- 15 Regular withdrawals will be taken by cancelling units across all bond policies and funds in your bond. If you have made two or more investments, we will cancel units in proportion to the value of units in each.
- 16 Normally we make the first payment at the end of the period you choose, for example, monthly payments start

- a month after the bond is set up. Only enter a date if you want your withdrawals to start later. Regular payments will usually reach your account within five working days of the date you have chosen.
- 17 Prudential International does not currently charge for payments made by Telegraphic Transfer but may do so in the future. In addition, banks including the recipient bank may levy further charges.
- 18 For all payments by Direct Credit or Telegraphic Transfer, Prudential International requires documentation to verify that the account is held in the name(s) of the policyholder(s). This can be provided by submitting a copy of a bank statement for the account to which funds are to be sent. We will require personal identification and address verification for any joint account holder in order to comply with all legal and regulatory obligations.

Payments cannot be made until full Bank Account verification is received.

In more limited circumstances, we may also need to rely on a derogation under applicable privacy laws.

If you want to know more about these safeguards – like our use of the European Commission's Standard Contractual Clauses which govern the transfer of information outside of the European Economic Area – further information is available on request.

We keep your personal information for a set amount of time

We'll keep your personal information while you're one of our policyholders (including joint policyholders), and for seven years from cessation, or longer if we need to by law. It'll always be in line with our data retention policy.

Part B - Reference checks

For certain products, we may use approved credit reference agencies, tracing companies, financial crime prevention agencies, or publicly available information, to help us to check your identity, as well as to prevent fraud and money laundering; this may include checks on your current or previous addresses. Results of these may be recorded for future reference.

These checks may also be carried out for a joint policy holder or person(s) that you provide personal information on. Should we ever lose contact with you, we may use these agencies to verify your address to help us get back in touch.

Any transfer of your personal information will always be done securely.

Part C – We may use your personal information to make automated decisions or profile you

We, M&G plc, our Business Partners, and our Marketing Partners may use your personal information to make automated decisions affecting you or to conduct other profiling (for example, marketing profiling).

To the extent that we conduct such automated decision making activity, we'll provide you with further information at the appropriate time.

Part D – Use of your sensitive personal information

For certain products or services, we'll need to process your sensitive personal information, such as information relating to health, genetics, biometric identifiers and sexual orientation. To the extent that we need your explicit consent to process this kind of personal information in the manner described in Parts A, B, and C, we will only process such data as provided by your consent.

Part E - You're in control

When it comes to how we use your personal information, you've got the right to:

- request a copy of your personal information for free (we may charge you for this if the request is manifestly unfounded or excessive). We shall respond as soon as reasonably possible and within one month of the date of receiving your request;
- in certain circumstances request that we move your personal information to another organisation if you want us to;
- request that we correct anything that's wrong, or complete any incomplete personal information;
- ask us to delete your personal information if it is no longer needed for the purposes set out in Part A or if there is no other legal basis for the processing;
- limit how we use your personal information or withdraw your consents you have given for the processing of your personal information (including consents to automated decision making);
- object to us using your personal information for direct marketing (including related profiling) or other processing based on legitimate interests;
- complain to a data protection authority or another independent regulator about how we're using it.

If you want to do any of these things, or would like an explanation as regards these rights, we've explained how you can get in touch in the 'Contact Us' section.

If you do need to speak to us, it'll be useful to have to hand that the data controller of your personal information is PIA. PIA has also appointed a Data Protection Officer who can be reached at the details shown in the 'Contact Us' section of this document.

We may monitor or record calls or any other communication we have with you. This will be for training, for security, or to help us check for quality.

Part F – Acting on someone else's behalf?

If you give us personal information about another person (or persons), we'll take that to mean they have appointed and authorised you to act on their behalf. This includes providing consent to:

- our processing of their personal information and sensitive personal information (as we've explained in Parts A, B, C, and D above);
- you getting any data privacy notices on their behalf.

If for any reason you are concerned as to whether you are permitted to provide us with the other person's information, please contact us on the phone number provided in the 'Contact Us' section before sending us anything.

Part G - Direct marketing

From time to time, we, M&G plc, our Business Partners and our Marketing Partners may like to contact you by electronic or non-electronic means with details about products, services and any special offers. Please note that any consent you give will not apply to M&G Investments Group and Prudential UK as they operate their own customer databases.

If you previously provided us with your marketing preferences for email, phone and/or text, we'll ensure that these preferences are adhered to.

We'll continue to send you communications by post unless you have asked us not to. If you've opted out already from post and/or email, phone or text, then we will not send you marketing communications.

If you haven't previously provided us with your preferences, or wish to change your mind on your current preferences, it's easy to let us know. Just contact us at the details noted in the 'Contact Us' section.

Failure to disclose a material fact may affect entitlement to benefits under the contract and could result in the contract being void.

Notes

22 If there are more than two applicants please photocopy this Declaration, complete and send in with this application.

Section 11 – Declaration of residence outside Ireland

Each Applicant must read these definitions and then complete the declaration.

Please note that the declaration below regarding nonresidence in Ireland must be completed before we can make payments.

Important Irish "Exit" Tax may be applied to the bond (for example on payments from the bond) if this declaration is not completed.

Residence definition – company

Generally a company that is incorporated in Ireland will be regarded as resident for tax purposes in Ireland. Incorporation in Ireland does not result in a company being tax resident in Ireland if the company is regarded as resident in a territory other than Ireland and not resident in Ireland for the purposes of a tax treaty. In such a case, the tax treaty provisions override the general rule.

A company that is incorporated in a foreign jurisdiction and is centrally managed and controlled in Ireland will be resident in Ireland for tax purposes.

It should be noted that the determination of a company's residence for tax purposes can be complex in certain cases and professional tax advice should be taken if necessary.

It should be noted that the determination of a company's residence for tax purposes can be complex in certain cases and declarants are referred to the specific legislative provisions which are contained in section 23A Taxes Consolidation Act 1997.

Residence definition - individual

An individual will be regarded as being resident in Ireland for a tax year if s/he either:

- spends 183 days or more in the State in that tax year, or
- has a combined presence of 280 days in the State, taking into account the number of days spent in the State in that tax year together with the number of days spent in the State in the preceding year.

Presence in a tax year by an individual of not more than 30 days in the State will not be reckoned for the purpose of applying the two-year test. Presence in the State for a day means the personal presence of an individual at any time during the day.

Ordinary residence definition – individual

The term "ordinary residence" as distinct from "residence" relates to a person's normal pattern of life and denotes residence in a place with some degree of continuity. An individual who has been resident in the State for three consecutive tax years becomes ordinarily resident with effect from the commencement of the fourth tax year.

An individual who has been ordinarily resident in the State ceases to be ordinarily resident at the end of the third consecutive tax year in which s/he is not resident. Thus, an individual who is resident and ordinarily resident in the State in 2008 and departs from the State in that year will remain ordinarily resident up to the end of the tax year 2011.
